FROM BEVERLEY

Travel along the A164 heading towards the Humber Bridge

At the roundabout signposted for Willerby go straight ahead then take the first turn on the right onto Great Gutter Lane.

Then take the first turn on the right signposted for South Cave and Rowley.

Follow this road through Raywell and Riplingham until you head into South Cave (Beverley Road).

As you come to the end of this road you will see South Cave Takeaway directly in front of you. HOWEVER, just before you reach the junction, you will see a beige coloured building on the right hand side with a stone wall. This is Holderness House. Look out for the black gates into our car park on the right hand side. If you reach the junction, you have gone too far.

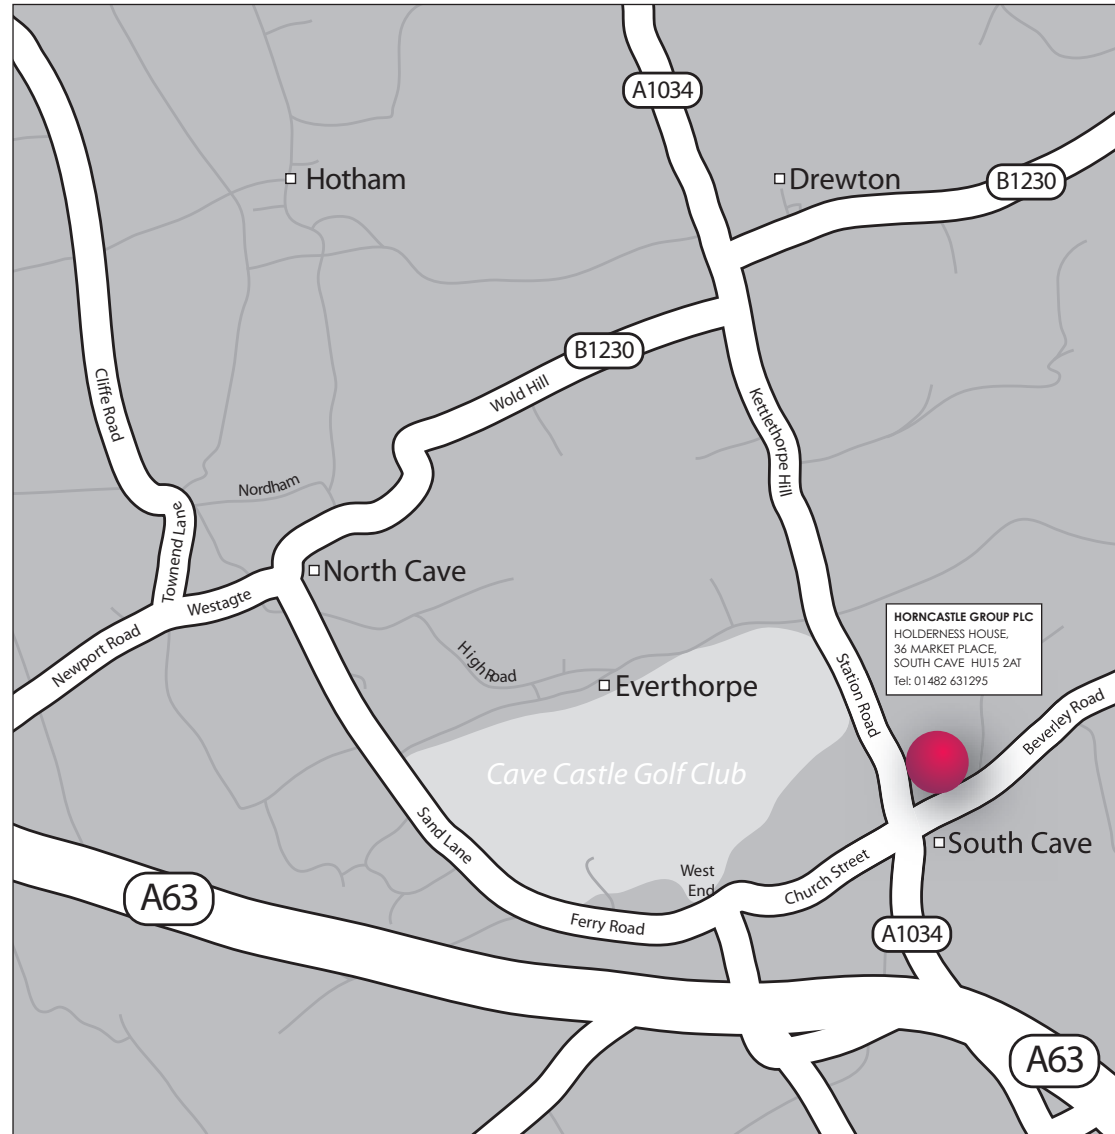

FROM HULL

Travel westbound on the A63, leaving at the junction for the A1034 South Cave.

Follow the road over the dual carriageway and down into the village until you see the Clock Tower and reach the crossroads.

At the crossroads, turn right into Beverley Road and immediate left into our Car Park through the black gates.

Upon leaving your car, walk down the path to the Conservatory entrance.

FROM A1079 (YORK)

Travel along the A1079 heading towards Hull.

At Market Weighton, travel along the bypass until you reach a roundabout.

At the roundabout, take the third exit signposted for the A1034 South Cave.

Continue along this road until you reach South Cave.

As you travel down into the village you will see a Clock Tower on the left hand side. Holderness House is to the right of that Clock on the corner of Beverley Road.

Turn left into Beverley Road and immediate left into our Car Park through the black gates.

Upon leaving your car, walk down the path to the Conservatory entrance.

FROM THE M62

Travel eastbound on the M62 towards Hull and continue onto the A63.

Leave at the junction for the A1034 South Cave.

Turn left at the top of the slip road and head down into the village until you see the Clock Tower and reach the crossroads.

At the crossroads, turn right into Beverley Road and immediate left into our Car Park through the black gates.

Upon leaving your car, walk down the path to the Conservatory entrance.
